firstname, We broke free from Google Search Console's 16-month barrier, and now you can too. But hurry—grab 50% off before the 1st of April.

After years of frustration from second-guessing the long-term impacts of our SEO campaigns, we decided to leverage big data and AI to create the ultimate tool for freelancers, SEO agencies and organisations.

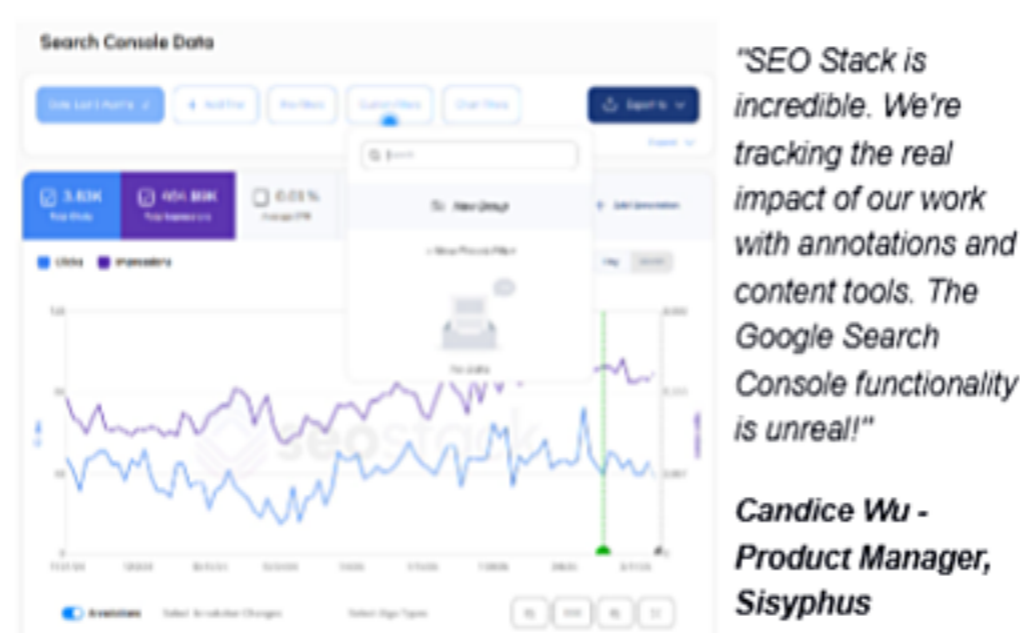

Get up to 10 YEARS of actionable GSC data - All FULLY accessible (and soon to be portable) with SEO Stack - the world's first rebuild of Google search console with integrated project management.

For a limited time only, we're offering 50% off any monthly or annual subscription. Why? Because we were able to transform our SEO efforts and want to give you the chance to achieve the same results with your campaigns.

Without SEO Stack, you're missing out on:

- ✓ Historical data patterns that can inform long-term SEO decisions.
- ✓ Having complete control over your valuable SEO data.
- ✓ The power to forecast future campaign performance based on historical trends.

"SEO Stack is incredible. We're tracking the real impact of our work with annotations and content tools. The Google Search Console functionality is unreal!"
